“ John you were a great friend and I will always remember the last time I saw you. It was at the Hard Rock in Tulsa where we had our last class reunion.. I too was in the Alva Hospital when you were born. You were 3 days older than me. May you now find peace. You are celebrating with your father. Miss you. TAMRA

“ I was born in the Alva General Hospital June 3rd two days before John. He loved to tell people that he saw me naked!! And as he wished I had the honor of being there when he passed on to a whole new dimension. I will miss our long talks and text messages. Words that remind me of our beloved John: talented, loving, kindhearted, gentleman, witty, brave, charming, dependable, selfless, tender, knowledgeable, eloquent, ornery, strong, caring, eccentric and sharing. I will never forget you my friend or the memories

“ I first met John at Bitronics in Bethlehem, PA. He started to work there a few months after I started. John was definitely different, but in a great way. We quickly became friends. We talked at length about Star Trek and other movies. In fact, John had a habit of staying up late to watch movies. I would crack up when I would see John doze off at work with a soldering iron in his hand. How he didn't fall over or burn himself is still a mystery. When he and I were promoted and became supervisors of our own departments we quickly spoke out to the owners for our employees rights and pay increases. We both nearly got fired but, we didn't care. We stood up for people who did not have a voice otherwise. That proves what kind of man John was. He loved to play Stratego. I played it with him a few times. He, of course, won every time. I will miss him. To his family I give my condolences. Cherish his memories. Each time you tell a story about him or think of a special moment he lives on. He will always live on in your hearts. God Bless.

“ To John's Family, When John was in high school, he spent a lot of after school days with my daughter & Charles, in my home, listening to music & hanging out as teenagers do. I've always thought a lot of John & felt my daughters were safe with him & his friends. I have always held him up in high esteem & respect. He had a great smile & very friendly to everyone.

“ John hurts no more. He was never truly understood in high school. A gifted artist, he was re-channeled into a farmer. A fierce friend with a gentle heart. I'll miss him, as we all will.

“ To a great friend, funny, and full of life. We met as artist at Colorado Institute of Art, and were friends every since.

To the family, a special passage from the Tehillim (Psalms)

34:19

The Lord is near to the broken hearted

(???? ????? ??????? ??)

My kindness and prayers go out to all of you.

“ May God surround you with His peace & comfort during this difficult time.

Pam (Herren) Merrill - February 06, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ Well old friend, I wish I had something elegant to say. I'm proud to have called you friend. I'm happy to have you woven in the fabric of my life. I'll miss the "what's up buddy" when you'd see me. I'll miss the steak dinners with you at the Moose. But most of all I'll miss your childish spirit.

You're one step closer to knowing now John.

Love you my friend and have a safe journey.

“ Francis, Mary, Ian and Simon,

I can't imagine how hard this must be for all of you. As hard as it is for the rest of us, I'm sure the amount of pain you feel from losing John is a hundred times worse. He was very much loved and will be greatly missed. I'm also aware of how hard this is for my sister. John was always there for her when she went through some hard times...just as she has been there for him. I can't imagine what it's like to lose one's "BEST" friend. (I love you, Sis, and I'm here for you!)

John,

I will miss your smile, your laugh, your witty humor and your terrible (most of the time) jokes! We've had some great times and made some wonderful memories, and I will never, ever forget you!! Love Ya!
