

Angela Kutzer

February 18, 1975 - March 8, 2016

Angela Renee was born to Lawrence Tisdale and Cathy (Goodwin) Tisdale at Okarche, Oklahoma on February 18, 1975 and passed away, following a lengthy illness, at home in Carmen Oklahoma, with her family, on March 8, 2016 at the age of 41 years, and 19 days.

She attended school and graduated from the Kingfisher School System, then she attended Vo-Tech School in El Reno.

Angie was a member of the 1st Baptist Church of Kingfisher.

When Angie moved to Alva from Wyoming, she needed a job so she decided to clean houses and commercial buildings to earn a living. She worked at the Woods County Courthouse and other local businesses. She cleaned for several dozen people in Woods and Alfalfa County.

Angie had a smile and personality that everyone loved.

She lived in Cherokee for five years and later moved to Carmen with her mom when she became ill.

Angela was preceded by her father, Lawrence, her step-father, Jack Beebe, her grand-parents, Bob & Geneva Goodwin and an Uncle R.C. Goodwin and other relatives.

She is survived by two sons, Treston Tisdale of Carmen Oklahoma and Traven Tisdale of Alva, her mother, Cathy Beebe of Carmen, brother Jody Beebe of Ellinwood, Kansas, his son Brent of Hays, Kansas, sister Tammy and husband David Williams and four daughters Liliana, Naomi, Amanda and Renee of Yukon, an uncle, Frank and Paula Goodwin of Fairview, two aunts,

Patricia Thomas of Warr Acres and Kay and husband Alan Harzman of Kingfisher, an uncle Carl and Reba Tisdale of Kingfisher and numerous other relatives and friends.
