

Brandon Carey Brown

November 28, 1977 - December 26, 2019

Brandon Carey Brown passed away on December 26, 2019 at the age of 42 at his home in Freedom, Oklahoma. Born November 28th in Lakin, Kansas, the son of Deborah (Martin) and Johnny Brown. He got his GED at Ulysses, KS After working other jobs and deciding it was time to get it.

When he was young, he first started working at a carnival and traveled around with them. After he came back home, he worked as a semi driver and traveled some more. His last job was at Cargill salt after he moved to Freedom, Oklahoma. He always worked hard and helped his fellow employees.

He is survived by his daughters whom he adored more than anyone, Emmerson Cleo Brown and Alexa Faith Brown. He will be forever remembered by his family, Mother, Deborah Brown and his sister Rayna Vance along with his nieces Shyla and Ciara Vance.

He had many friends and family who will never forget his big heart. He would give someone the shirt off his back to help them if he could. Whenever a special occasion came along, he would ask everyone if they wanted to go out to eat. He made Jokes and puns all the time to make people laugh. One of his favorite things to do was playing video games. He was mostly into playing Red Dead Redemption. When he wasn't playing games, he was taking care of his daughters, or working. He loved taking his oldest daughter, Emmerson, to school in the mornings.

Brandon's funeral service will be held on Friday the 3rd starting with the visiting at noon, then a family dinner at 2, and finally the service will be at 4. It will all be held at the school auditorium in Freedom, Oklahoma.

Memorial contributions may be made in his memory to The Freedom of Fire and Ambulance.
