“ We Mitchell girls (Ida Fay, Irma Kay, and Bonnie) always like to be around Carolee and Jim, whether at church services and activities, ballgames, community events, and when called to babysit the boys. Carolee was well-known for sharing her delicious chocolate sheet cakes. One time when I was babysitting the boys in March 1968 as a sophomore, I saw her recipe on her table. When the boys went to bed, I wanted to copy it, but had no paper. I found an empty envelope addressed to Mr. & Mrs. James Stacy of Burlington that was thrown away on the top of the trash can, so I copied it off the the back and front of that envelope that had a 6 cent stamp on it! I have never recopied the recipe onto a recipe card because when I use it, I always have fond memories of that couple. Ida Fay(Mitchell) Winters, Altus, OK
