“ My heart pours out to you all during this time, because nothing is worse than the loss of a child. You all are in my thoughts and prayers. Please know that times will get easier, it may take years but with God by your side and loving family and friends you will be comforted and be able to handle your loss!!! Look to God for strength and he will not leave you!!! He is the only way I can explain how I have made it through the past few years... Please let me know if there is anything I can do to help, and please remember this is a hard time right now and there is a hole in your heart but your child lived and we thank God for that life!
Love to all
