“ Jean was far more to me than just a landlord; she was a very dear friend whom I admired very much. The last time I saw Jean she commented that she was very glad that our paths has crossed, but as I reflect on this comment, I was the lucky one. I loved Jean and I will miss her.

“ Our sympathy is with the family. Jean was a very sweet lady. I never taught at the same school that she was at but I often visited with her at meetings and other places. May you find comfort in her memories and in the thoughts and prayers of your friends.

“ What a wonderful lady. We had the priveledge of having her as a teacher with our children. She was so kind, loving, compassionate. We are sure you as a family also have many wonderdful memories. We miss the loving touch of a family member, but we also know they have the opportunity to live. She has not died, but advanced to a more wonderful life with the heavenly father.
