

Fayette Acord

January 25, 1926 - January 11, 2021

Fayette Delores (Harth) Acord passed away on Monday, January 11, 2021 at Share Medical Center in Alva, Oklahoma. Fayette was born on January 25, 1926 to Hubert William Harth and Fern Alice (Morland) Harth in Woods County. She spent most of her childhood on a farm close to Farry, Oklahoma. She graduated from Farry High School in 1945. She excelled in basketball and other sports in Farry.

She married Floyd Emmett Acord on February 17, 1946 in Arkansas City, Kansas and made their home in Alva, Oklahoma. She was a homemaker and a second mother to several nieces and nephews. Her careers included Tupperware sales, waitressing and cleaning offices.

Fayette was an active member of the Town and Country Christian Church in Alva. She was very active in the Woman of the Moose and held several offices. She loved traveling, making quilts, playing pitch and other games, cooking, helping others and being with friends and family.

Fayette's loving spirit and presence will be missed by all those fortunate enough to be her family and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Hubert and Fern Harth, sisters, Fern Anne Wendling, and Hazel Rozella Wagoner and Vernie, Iva Lou McDonald and James Earl; brothers, Leonard William Harth and Dorothy, Ollie Roland Harth and Frankie, Alfred Eddy Harth and Darlene, Harold Dean Harth, and Lytle Bennie Harth; and nephew Patrick O'Leary.

She is survived by her sister-in-law Nancy Marie Harth, and numerous nieces and nephews.

In lieu of flowers, make a donation to the Town and Country Christian Church or the Moose Lodge in Alva, Oklahoma.
