“Foy's mother and my dad's mother were sisters so that made us cousins. Even though many miles separated us, we stayed in contact with Foy and Nena and were so proud of their accomplishments and glad to call them friends and family. While they will be greatly missed, I am sure they are reunited. Our sympathy to the family and may your wonderful memories be a comfort to you all.

“ I met Foy in the 80's while mowing for the highway dept. by his home, I will respectfully remember him for his love for his family, the land, his turkeys and deer-he would visit and work hard along side of us in the beautiful country-side where he lived.
