“ We were always appreciative and very thankful for Freda. She cared for our son Kevin at the young age of 18 months. She was so kind and loving to all of us. I still have the beautiful poem she wrote to me from Kevin on Mothers Day 1966

“ We were very sorry to read of Freda's passing. I ran into her at the rest home a while back and it took 20 minutes to get where I was going. She always was great to visit with and left me with a smile every time. May God be with your family in these sad times.
