

Gereda Faye Weymouth

November 30, 1931 - November 25, 2018

On November 25, 2018 the angels came to take our loving mother home to her heavenly rest. Gereda Faye was born November 30, 1931 to S.C. and Evie Stepaniak.

The 3rd of 4 children, Faye lived in multiple places until the family put down roots in the Kansas City area.

It was while living in the Kansas City area that Faye met the love of her life, Thomas Weymouth. They were united in marriage at Richards-Gebaur Air Force Base on April 2, 1956.

Tom's Air Force career took them to many places worldwide and 4 children completed the family.

Tom retired from the service in 1969 and the family settled once again near Kansas City. In 1978 Tom and Faye answered God's call, moving to Dacoma, Oklahoma to pastor a small church, serving until Tom's death in 2004.

Faye was preceded in death by her parents, husband, Tom, sons Terry and David; two brothers and their wives.

She leaves behind her son Gary and his wife Edna, daughter Diana; daughter in law Trish, and daughter of the heart Linda, grandchildren, great grandchildren; a brother Roy and his wife Glynda; many nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Memorial contributions may be made in her memory to St. Jude's Children's Hospital.
