June 22, 1927 - August 16, 2016

Gladyce Geisler of Carmen, Oklahoma was born Gladyce Hermann, June 22, 1927 and went to be with the Lord August 16, 2016 at the age of 88 years, 11 months and 25 days at Alva, Oklahoma.

Gladyce was born the youngest daughter of Ben and Merriam Hermann and was preceded in death by her sister, Betty Cheatum. She was raised in Alva and graduated from Alva High School before marrying Virgil Geisler on August 1, 1945.

Gladyce and Virgil moved to Carmen, where they lived for 64 years, building a life together farming and raising cattle. She also worked at Central State Bank in Alva for several years.

She and Virgil were members of the Seventh Day Adventist Church in Alva, which now rests on family property that she helped provide. Her home in Carmen and the land on which it rests were the center of Gladyce's universe and she deeply cared for every creature living on it from her many cats, dog Laddy, pet bull Reddy to even the ants that made mounds on her homestead. Gladyce is survived by her three nephews, Doug Fugit of Memphis, Gary of Wichita and Mark of Dallas.

“ Oh what a sweet lady she was! Always called me by name and wanted me to check on her cats and Laddy on my way home from work after I stopped to see my Mom at nursing home. She loved her chocolate bars and Dr Pepper! Many fond memories. Prayers for the family! Virgil and Gladyce were good friends of my folks. Dancing was their loved .

“ I remember all the great meals that we had when I was a young man working on the farm. One day she didn't have time to fix pie or cake for desert and really felt bad about not having it for me. What a great lady!
