“ Marj, no one knows your pain. No one can make it all better. BUT God can provide strength and comfort if you allow it at this time. Mom thought very highly of you and your family. I always saw you as a woman of strength, and still do! Many prayers are being sent to you and your family. God's comfort and strength to you, your family, and the members of every team your daughter was on.

“ Marj, we are so sorry for your loss. It was always such a treat to see you and Hallie in church as I walked down to my seat. I know God will give you the strength to make it through this time. It is very hard to understand these things, but God has a reason. We will never know now, but she is with God and will always be looking down and smiling at you. We will keep you in our prayers. “ I really can't tell you how sorry we are over the loss of Hallie. What little time we spent with her she was very sweet and shy. She had grown up to be a beautiful young lady. Whenever Rhett saw her he would stop and give her a hug as he would with every beautiful lady. You will always be in our prayers.

“ Marj and family, I cant but think about what you are going through today as it is Christmas and your daughter is spending it with Jesus this year! As I know the pain I have and still go through after the loss of my son I know this time of year can be hard when it comes to the loss of a child. Please know that you are in many peoples hearts and prayers, and time will heal. I did not get the chance to know your daughter but have been told by many how sweet she was. Please remember that although here on earth it seems like forever since we have seen our kids and even longer tell we see them again, just know that in Heaven there is no time. To Hallie it will only seem as she has gone off to school one day and comes home and you are there. We mourn the loss of our children but we also celebrate the life they were given!! May god be with you!

“ Marj and family,

Sorry just doesn't seem appropriate. Hallie was a beautiful girl inside and out. My heart hurts for you all. I think God was trying to complete His basketball team so He had Hallie suit up. He needed someone who plays with all heart. Only Hallie would do. Everyone at Lite-n-Nite will miss her.

“ May the Holy Spirit minister to your hearts at this very moment. Where there is pain & doubt may God give you peace & mercy. Hallie & you remind me of DesiRae & I. You were not just mother & daughter but best friends. DesiRae & I used to say we were joined at the hip!! That's the way I see you & Hallie. I know you are proud of her since she was a beautiful young lady who was dedicated to her church, family, academics, athletics & friends. For all of us Christmas doesn't seem to be an appropriate time for God to call Hallie home but to God it is perfect timing. What a great place to spend Christmas!! To be in Heaven with Jesus who is the reason for the season. I know we don't understand but when we get to Heaven we will know all things!

Sincerely,

“ Haille, hi babe, it's Mel and Jake. Just wanted to tell you thank you for coming into our lives and showing us what strength, love, and persaverance can do. You are the little girl that only a lucky mother has a chance to raise, you were always thoughtful, kind, and even though you were quite shy and quiet, Jake and I know different. Man, could you two girls giggle and carry on. Marg, you have done a wonderful job as a mother, and even though Haille has left us, your mothering will forever carry on. Every day you will continue to be the mother, and everyday Haille will remind you of something. Jake and I will always be their for you, love always.
