“ My sympathies to Ida Rae's family and friends. Although not a close friend, I was in her high school graduation class. She was well thought of by friends and classmates.

“ You were such a delight and so full of life. We enjoyed having you the short time you were with us. You were such an inspiration to be around. You made us laugh and you would leave a good thought with us always. Never heard you say a negative word. Thank you for the memories to us and to your family.
