Jeff was such a handsome looking man. I always enjoyed our visits when he would come after seed wheat. He may only be a mile away when he would call and say he was on his way. I will miss him as a friend and a neighbor.

“ My condolences to Jeff's family. I was a young dumb high school kid, around 2008, when I made my way back to Oklahoma, looking for a job. Jeff was the only one willing to give me a shot. I learned a lot about life, working, and more that summer. I will always be grateful to Jeff for giving me that opportunity. He was a good man whom I truly respected. He will be missed.

“ Although Jeff denied, denied and denied, I know he was a willing participant in the “Tilley” incident! Oh those were good times at grandma’s farm house. The egg hunts and fights afterwards, the junkyard, the football games and the game of spoons shaped our childhood with cousins. His ornery smile and the twinkle in his eyes will always be a fond memory to me. Prayers to the family.
