“ It was an honor and a privilege to meet Jennilee and to visit her in the hospital. Her great smile and the joy which flowed from her, even in the midst of her illness, revealed her deep faith and love for the Lord, as well as her love for her family. May you each feel the Lord's presence comforting you and strengthening you as you remember and celebrate her life this Saturday. Janice, you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I (Julie) worked with Jennilee @ the bank for aprox 9 years. She taught me her job so I could be her back up. How I loved her and her sweet sweet tender heart. I can hear her voice and laughter. People @ the bank always said they couldn't tell Jennilee's writing from mine. To me that was a compliment!! I have missed Paul & Jennilee since they moved. I would get to see them occassionally @ the bowling alley or I might see them just cruising around town. I am so sorry Paul God be with you and we'll all meet together someday in Heaven.
