“ Linda and family, my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family, I know he will be missed, that is very evident after viewing the video. It certainly shows how much he enjoyed the family. I've seen very little of him since our graduation in '55, was so pleased when he stopped by our '50th Class Reunion' in 2005, just wish he would have spent more time with us that day.

Enjoyed the video, cherish those memories.

My deepest sympathy. Kay

“ Sorry to hear about the loss of a fellow classmate. Jim sent me on the right track. I had a hankering to be a boxer when in early grade school. No one would volunteer to put on the gloves until I asked Jim. One or two blows later, I was on the ground and dizzy the rest of the day. Therefore, I sought out a more suitable career with a closer match to my abilities.
