“ A friend, an insightful mind, a true example of the best in humanity has transcended us. Though we never met in person, your mark is etched forever in my heart. Thank you for being there, and sorry we never got to make the road trip we hoped to. You are welcome and I hope to see you freely traversing the halls for your "walk-through" on my next visit. A candle is lit in my heart to illuminate your journey home my friend.

“ You all are cousins to my cousins yet we are not related. I have always felt like we were related since we grew up together. I will treasure the memories of all of us playing together at Grandma Case's. I always enjoyed visiting with Kenny whenever I saw him. He was a GREAT father. I hope Tiffany realizes how lucky she was to have such a wonderful Dad.

“ I don't know why God took such a wonderful person from this world. Ken will be missed. I have enjoyed working with him for 7 years and learned alot from him. Every morning he would come in and I'd have the comic page set aside for him. I guess God needed his office organized and he picked the best person for the job. Ken smile and wit will be missed around the plant. With love from a friend and co-worker. Lisa Lopshire
