“ My heart goes out to all Lana's family. I still cant believe she is gone. Although it has been years since I have seen Lana, I have so many memories of church camp with her..and her love of music..that heart-warming smile. She was such a giving person. May she rejoy in being with the Lord. I pray for peace and comfort for all those left behind to fill the missing gap of her loss. Rest in Peace, my friend.

“ I am very sorry for your loss.I was a former student of Lana's. It has been many years since I have had contact with Lana, but what I do remember was her genuine concern for others, her desire to be helpful and the utmost respect and pride that shined through her when she talked about her husband, her children and her brother. Her love for each of you was unconditional. I pray each of you will find peace and understanding as Lana would not want you to dwell on the negative aspect of her passing but to look towards the future with optimism and positive reflections of the times you spent together...and to carry on her legacy of love, compassion and goodwill towards others.
