

Laura Johnson Lourde

March 14, 1965 - April 16, 2012

Critically acclaimed singer-songwriter Laura Lourde passed away in her sleep early Monday morning. Known to her many thousands of fans across the country as Laura Shawen, she was both admired for her distinctive mix of rock and country sung in an unmistakable, husky voice, and beloved for her tremendous generosity, brilliance, and quick wit. She is survived by her daughter, Jamie Cox, and grandson Trent—both of Spring Hill, Fla.—brother Chris Shawen of Maryland, and partner Kathleen Lourde of Dacoma, Okla. She will be sorely missed.

“ I just recently found out about my longtime friend. I in last 4 yrs got in touch with her on the computer, after leaving SD, ca in 1993, It was some of the best times hanging out with her, funny, intelligent and taught me more about music and life and to respect all of it. This news has broken my heart, but I know she is no longer in pain, though it was way to soon, her spirit lives through all that knew her, she was most definetly one of a kind. I feel priveldged to have been graced with her as a "friend" i adopted her as my big sis...she knew so much about me, and did so much more for me than she will ever know. Much respect for the incredible woman, beautiful soul, and kindred spirit of one of a kind, Laura you will be so much more than missed. May the Goddesses surround her partner Kathleen. Peace out)0(

“ Dear Laura,
You were my first mentor in the lifestyle and You never left my heart nor my soul. Though we had not talked but for a few e-mails the last several years, I thought of You often. Getting to spend time with You back in the summer of 1996 when I was totally green in the lifestyle was a rare privilege and a memory I will cherish forever. You live on forever in the spirit You imparted to others and in your amazing music.
Namaste,
Sage

“ Laura and I go back a long way! I spent a lot of time at her house as we were growing up. The memories are endless. They begin with Bette Middler-her idol,"Carrie", the birth of her beautiful daughter, Jamie, and soooo many more. My thoughts and prayers are with the family and her many freinds. Miss and love you, sis!!!

“ Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there; I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sun on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circling flight.
I am the soft star-shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there; I did not die.

“ I remember a long ago evening in Chapel Hill when Laura brought her music to us in a sweet little bar. My two daughters were very young but had been exposed to her music through "Deliver Me" and could sing every word of the title song. Laura was gracious and my girls were in awe. Bless you, Laura. You live on through your music and through those who love you so. Thank you, Andrea, for introducing me to this amazing talent. May Light, Love and Peace be with those who are grieving. And may we all continue to listen to the music....
