“ Les was one of a kind. He was named after my dad Leslie and his father Earl. He was able to have pets like a prairie dog, to swamping stories one could almost believe like hauling a semi load of Jack Rabbits to restore the prairie grass in western Kansas after the range fires a few years back. I am sure going to miss visiting with him. Anyone who knew Les you had a immediate friend. May God bless his family and give them comfort knowing what a good person he was.
