“ I was truly greatly saddened to learn of Liane’s passing. My fondest memories of Liane are when we were young. As cousins, I seldom saw her or Carl, her brother, but when I did, it was with great anticipation. I remember her tomboyish sweetness and her wonderful smile. We always had a lot of fun just talking. As the years went by, we lost touch, but just this summer, I was blessed by a renewal of our friendship through a phone call. She has been, and always will be a very special person in my life, I will miss her greatly as long as I live.

Since I didn’t get the chance to know Liane as an adult, I don’t know if this will fit. But, I ran across this little piece below and thought it was very nice, so I’m including it.

*Your Mother is always with you.
She’s the whisper of the leaves as you walk down the street;
She’s the smell of freshness in your newly laundered clothes;
She is the cool hand on your brow when you’re not feeling well.
Your mother lives inside your laughter.
And She’s crystallized in every tear drop you shed.
She’s the place you came from, your first home;
She’s your first love and your first heartbreak,
and nothing on earth can separate you from her.
Not time, nor space... not even death.*

Marlin and I send our deepest heartfelt sympathy to every member of Liane’s family. I am praying that Psalm 34:18,22 is a reality in each of your lives.

*“The Lord is near to the brokenhearted And saves those who are crushed in spirit. (NASU)
The LORD redeemeth the soul of his servants: and none of them that trust in him shall be desolate. (KJV)”*

“ Michelle and Tisha, So sorry to hear of your loss. Liane was such a loyal friend. I loved the friendship we had when you girls were little. I moved away and only saw her occasionally after that. But, she always had a smile and hug to give each time I did see her. My thoughts and prayers are with you.
