

Lovina E. Clark

December 25, 1933 - April 24, 2013

Lovina Ellen, daughter of Lovina (Bonewitz) and Jim Davis was born December 25, 1933 in Carmen, Oklahoma. She passed away at Beadles Nursing Home on the 24th day of April at the age of 79 years, 3 months and 30 days.

She attended school and graduated from Carmen. On May 19, 1951 the day after graduation she was married to J.L. "Bud" Clark. They immediately set out on a life filled with adventures and hard work.

Lovina grew up in Carmen, Oklahoma where she helped her mother in Business' at an early age. She took the business proceeds to the bank at age five and counted the deposits to make sure they were correct. This began Lovina's lifelong expertise with money and business.

She worked for many years with C.W. Wisdom both at Alva State Bank and with his family. She built business' selling crop insurance and as an adjuster, as well as farming, ranching and horse breeding with the love of her life J.L."Bud" Clark.

Bud and Lovina worked together in all areas and always had each other's back. Their life together is a great example of how, love and commitment to each other triumphs over all things.

Mrs. Clark is preceded in death by her parents, three sisters; Corene, Susie and Alice; two brothers: Jim and R.W. "Bob".

Lovina is survived by her husband Bud and a number of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ Bud, I am so sorry to hear of the loss of our Lovina. I wish I could have been there for you both. Lovina was like a second mother to me. She was a strong, intelligent business woman that taught me a lot. She will be truly missed, but she shall always be remembered, lovingly in all our hearts. My arms reach out from here in Southwest Colorado to embrace you with Hugs and remembering the good times David and I had helping you both with your horses and farming. David and I send you our love.
