“ What i remember most about Marvin was being a great friend. I worked at the Homestead for 12 years and knowing him was one of the highlights of my career. When the residents wanted to raise butterflies, Marvin designed and built a wonderful butterfly house. He was in on getting raised flower beds built for the Homestead. He spent hours upon hours planting ,watering and fertilizing all the vegetables. The last thing I remember about Marvin was what a kind and caring man he was. I was honored to call him FRIEND
