“ Mike lived for awhile at The Homestead where I got to know him better..he was congenial, watched tv movies(mostly old westerns)

You could find him in the library or working on puzzles in the activity room or at one of the tables situated at the end of the halls. Mike was pretty easy going but he liked HIS TV really loud and HIS door open so he could share with others whatever was on! I think most of us enjoyed Mike except those who didn't enjoy Loud Western Movies!!

“ I coached Mike in little league baseball. He was so good at shortstop that I nicknamed him "Tom Tresh", who was playing shortstop for the New York Yankees at that time!

RIP Mike! Thoughts and prayers to the family!!
