“ Pat was always my favorite aunt. I remember her making eggs for her dog, Lepshon, for breakfast. She was a very sweet and loving person who will be missed.

“ So sorry to read about Pat's death! When Pat came to Alva she lived in my parent's apartment at 930 Okla. Blvd. It was across the street from her brother, LLOYD, Katherine & Family. I remember when she & Leo got married! She was a beautiful lady!
