Beloved wife of Ray Esley Davidson (Deceased January 17th, 2013 at 86 years of age) loyal wife for 71 years, and mother of 2 son's Terry Esley Davidson (Deceased August 17th , 2013 at 69 years of age) and Randall Aaron Davidson, 65 years of age from Fairborn, Ohio.

She was a member of the First Baptist Church of Fairborn, Ohio for 38 years, and a member always of a Baptist Church in the city where she resided with my father at the time during the years of my fathers Civil Service career and even back to the beginning of their marriage in Cherokee, Oklahoma. Darlene was always a Believer in Jesus Christ as her personal Savior. She was saved as a young girl growing up in a Christian family and always maintained her Faith throughout her entire life. She never missed an opportunity to tell anyone she came in contact with about her love for her Savior . Darlene accumulated many friends that she counseled and many younger people that she discipled for Christ.

Darlene was also an entrepreneur. She started as a seamstress and that grew into her love for dolls and antiques. She did juried doll shows in Indianapolis, Indiana for 20 years and then later maintained several antique booths at an Antique Mall in Springfield , Ohio.

A loving grandmother to Shana Ricke of Andover , KS, daughter of Terry Davidson and Great Grandmother to Shana's 3 children.

The last of the 12 original Ream children to pass away. She went to be with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and she will be remembered for her life of loyal service to others in her community.
