

Ralph Gagnon

January 1, 2022

passed away at the age of eighty-six on January 1, 2022. Beloved husband of the late Marjorie Gagnon for sixty-six years; loving father of Francis (Lesley) Gagnon, Cynthia (Robert) Reeg, and Glenn (Georgianna) Gagnon; cherished grandfather of Amy Tilley, Adam and Andrew Gagnon, Katie (John) Gresko and Laura Cass, Matthew (Jordon Agee) and Daniel (Megan) Reeg, Luke (Desirae) Gagnon and Abbey (Rich) Bachmann; loving brother of the late Doris Landry, Margaret McKibben, Hank Gagnon, Robert Gagnon, Daniel Gagnon, and his two surviving sisters Annette Roberts and Sheila Jenson; dearest great-grandfather of Avery Tilley; Jack, Evan, Lucus, Oliver, and Isabelle Gresko; Sam, Max and Lucy Reeg; Zoey, Izabella and Jerzee Gagnon.

Ralph was born on the plains of western Kansas in Zurich, a small town rooted in waving wheat and strong family ties. He loved wood-working, gardening, stained glass and the Kansas City Chiefs. Always industrious and ever on the hunt for his next adventure, he resided in dozens of mid-west locales in his life. He was quick to make new friends and share a joke or two. A truly generous man—he lived his life of faith every day. He was a most loving father and will be greatly missed by all his family.

A Rosary will be said at 7pm on May 27 and a funeral mass held at 10am on May 28 in Alva, Oklahoma at Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

Memorial contributions may be sent to Catholic Charities or Sacred Heart Catholic Church

“ TRIBUTE to RALPH (by Wally Renfro from the Village Cooperative in Olathe)

Probably everyone has their own Ralph Gagnon story.

For some their experience was with Ralph in the garden. For others, it likely was connected to Rusty...Ralph's constant companion. For all of us, it was about a diminutive elf of a fellow who nearly always had a smile for everyone he met, who loved to poke fun at his friends, who would sit quietly through a social event and then deliver a piece of insight that would sum it all up.

To me, he was the very definition of a loving rascal who could take a joke as easily as he could deliver, who would give the shirt off his back to anyone who was friend, and who had no enemies. We will miss him more than we can say.

“ To the Gagnon family members,
Ralph will be truly missed by his many friends and professional colleagues. He was my first supervisor when I began my 30 some years career with farmer cooperatives at the Co-op Service Association in Concordia Kansas.
Our paths crossed many times over the ensuing years.
Ralph was a sterling example of the Western Kansas work ethic and the strong Catholic faith of the French Canadian immigrants of Kansas.
Although I did not maintain contact with him over the last few years I thought of him often.
God's speed old friend.
