“ I was very sorry to read about the loss of your dad. Just seeing him would bring back the goods times we were all in school together. I always enjoyed seeing him. He still knew who I was and would stop and visit a while. I know he will be missed.

“ My heart goes out to the family and friends of Wayne. When God decided he wanted a happy man on earth, he created Wayne! He was always happy, liked to tease and be teased, and enjoyed every minute of whatever he was doing. He kidded Pat about her signs around town saying he didn't know what she was "running for" but he was votng for her! He bragged to his golf buddies about how long his cart batteries lasted (he always bummed a ride with someone else). He came to visit me daily when I had my heart attack, so you know he cared for others.

“ He left a good family with I'm sure many fine memories. Sounded like he loved to drive the pastures and fields with his dog by his side and did until his last day. A pretty good life I would say we could all learn something from.
