“ Bill was a great neighbor! He would go around to houses when it snowed and shovel the driveways and sidewalks. I got up one morning to go out and clean my car off and he had already done it. He wanted no compensation for all his good deeds. He will meet his Lord and the Lord will say good job my son. ”

“ Melody...I am conflicted. I know Bill is enjoying walking in heaven and having great conversations with the Lord...most likely trying to pull one over on Him with his wonderful humor. I also know how much you will miss your dad and grieve your loss. I am thinking of you, Jill, your mom and families.

“ Bill work with my father at the feed store when I was a very young child. He always called my brother and by each others name; we thought he didn't know our names bad we wold try to correct him. He would argue with us and say we were pulling his leg. He assured us he new our correct names. He also would put his toe on the scales when we would tr to weight ourselves.

Occasionally, he would send home candy bars to us kids.

It has been my pleasure to have known him as a family friend and then be blessed a second time to have him as a family member/uncle through my wife.

He has always been an example to emulate as a man, friend and Christian.
